LB 954

State Energy Office and they merely as you can see are rather simple. They just change the word "Creation" to "Utilization", and on page 25 we add language "and which has a useful life of at least three years". Page 25, strike "designed to retain heat" and insert "for heating, cooling, or heating and cooling". Page 27, line 14, we strike "creation" and insert "utilization". Page 30, before the word "contractor" insert the words "non-residential". And that is about all they do, Mr. President. I move the adoption of the amendments.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, fellow colleagues, I would like to support the amendment. This protects the first buyer of a home or protects the second buyer of a home, rather, and I think it is a good amendment so I would like to support Senator Schmit.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Hefner. Senator Labedz. The question has been called for. Do I see five hands? Shall the House go under Call? All those in favor...I am sorry. The question is, shall the Legislature cease debate? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. Have you all voted? If you want to cease debate vote aye, if you don't vote no. Record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Debate is ceased. Senator Schmit, do you wish to close on your amendment to 954? Senator Schmit, you are suppose to close on your amendment to 954.

SENATOR SCHMIT: I have no closing, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Chairman, I submit to you...I would like to ask when there ever was a hearing on this thing. There was a lien bill in another committee and I would like to have some answers from Senator Schmit as to what this is all about. It looks like another bill in here to me.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Nichol, I am sorry but debate has ceased. Senator Schmit, you don't want to close, okay. You want to vote on the Schmit amendments to 954. All
